fellowship and further exploration of the anfellowship and further exploration of the an-nual theme. Live Jesus! Communities can be formed based an any common denominator, i.e. neighborhood, workplace or profession. Members of a Live Jesus! Community do not need to belong to the same parish.

What makes a Live Jesus! Community different from the myriad of existing parish organizations? The majority of parish-based organizations are chartered for one purpose

It may be for prayer, outreach, bible study, fellowship, personal faith formation or parish support. Members of a Live Jesus! Community are committed to three purposes; shoring their faith, serving the needy, and studying the Catholic faith in their aues to spread the Joy of the Gospel.

ou learn to speak by speaking, to study by studying, to run rking; in just the same way, you learn to love by loving.

Pope Francis suggests some ways to bloom where we are planted today: "We need saints without cassocks, without veils. We need saints with jeans and tenns shoes, We need saints that go to the movies, that listen to music, that hang out with riems. We need saints who put God in first place, ahead of succeeding in any calore with purify, chastity, and all good things. We need saints that how how to be in with a spirituality appropriate to our new time. We need saints that have a committive in the world, to sanctify the world and to not be draid of living in the poor and to make the needed social change. We need saints for presence in it. We need saints that draid and to not be draid of living in the world by their internet and that listen to their iPods. We need saints that love the Eucharist. It and arrived the movies, dance, sports, the dark. We need saints that are open, so how to enjoy the best in this world without being callous or mundane. We need saints "Pope Francis". We are looking for volunteers to participate in Phase 1, the pilot of this program. Additionally, we are seeking to esti-mate the interest in participating in the program after the pilot is completed.

Phase 1 – April to July 2014 The ideal pilot will consist of five communi-ties to be formed in the geographic areas best suited to the participants.

Pilot communities will be asked to evaluate each step – Study, Serve, and Share.

Phase 2 – What is my commitment?
Upon completion of the pilot period, additional Live Jesus! Communities will be formed beginning in September 2014.
We anticipate groups will meet year-round and utilize a four-month cycle.

Month One – All groups gather – Guest Speaker sets theme for following three monthly meetings.

Month Two - Individual groups study and discuss theme.

Month Three - Service. Determined by each group from a list of suggested

Month Four - Participants review theme

Attendance at annual Live Jesus! Event. Annual Salesian retreat – optional.
